A Series of Unfortunate Events: A Bad Beginning

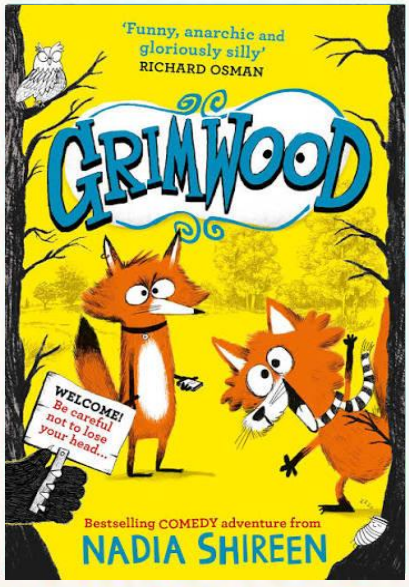

by Lemony Snicket

Reviewed by: Molly Book Age: 8 +

I loved this book because is gives a mystery vibe. It is about 3 children losing their parents in a terrible house fire. Mr Po let them stay the night so he could find someone in their bloodline that will care for them. Count Olaf tries to steal their fortune by marrying Violet, the oldest child. A show is ran by Count Olaf's theatre group for the marriage but Violet signs it with her non-dominant hand which makes it invalid.

I enjoyed this book because it has horror and humiliation!

Grimwood

Reviewed by: Francesca Book Age: 7 +

I enjoyed this book because it is really funny and has a surprising plot twist. It is great for people with a strong imagination. There are more books in the series to collect too!

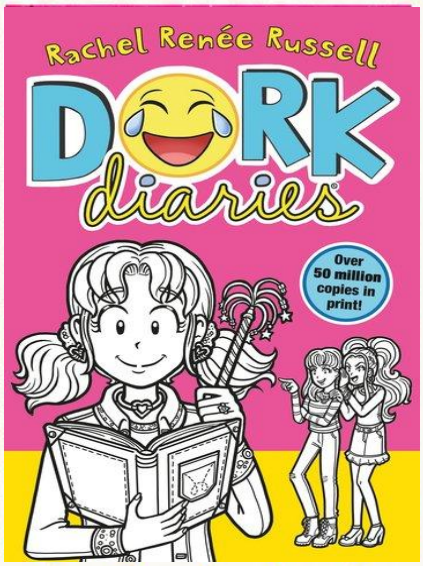

Grimwood is a small village with a close enemy... Twinklenuts. At first, Sebastian Silver seems like a nice person but he plans an epic game-changer. Ted is a cute little fox who is from the big city. He thinks everything in Grimwood is amazing. Nancy is Ted's older sister and she is a sly fox who thinks Grimwood is bananas!

Dork Diaries

by Rachel Renée Russell

Reviewed by: Amelia  Book Age: 9 +

I enjoyed this book because it was very funny and captivating. It is about a 14 year old girl called Nikki Maxwell. She is in 8th grade and she is my favourite character. She is a very talented artist and towards the end she realises that she doesn't need to be in the popular crowd to be happy.

Overall, I think that this book is worth reading and if you like it, read the series!

Wigglesbottom Primary Dino Chick

by Becka Moor

Reviewed by: Ruby  Book Age: 7+

Wigglesbottom Primary is a very good, funny book series. Dino Chick is one of my favourites because I love mystery and suspense and there is lots of finding out in the book. This book is for 5-9/10 year olds and for children who love silly and funny books.

If you read it I hope you enjoy it too and read the other books in the series as well!
